CONSTITUTION

Tri State Amateur Radio Society

PREAMBLE: We, the undersigned being desirous to secure for ourselves the pleasures and benefits of the association of persons commonly interested in Amateur Radio, by furthering better co-operation among its members, developing individual efficiency, furthering the interest of radio in the general community, do hereby constitute ourselves the Tri-State Amateur Radio Society and do enact this constitution as our governing law.

MEMBERSHIP:

ARTICLE I

Sec. 1 - All persons interested in amateur radio shall be eligible for membership. (Membership shall be by application and election upon such terms as the Society shall by its By-Laws provide).

OFFICERS:

ARTICLE II

Sec. 1. - The officers of this Society shall be: A President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer.

Sec. 2. - A Board of Directors shall be elected as provided in the By-Laws.

Sec. 3. - The officers of this Society shall be elected for a term of one year by ballot of the members present provided there be a quorum, at the annual meeting during March.

Sec. 4. - Vacancies occurring between elections must be filled by special ballot, at the first regular meeting at which the withdrawal or resignation is announced.

Sec. 5. - Officers may be removed on motion by a three-fourths vote of the membership.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS:

ARTICLE III

Sec. 1. - The President shall preside at all meetings of this Society, and conduct the same according to the rules adopted; he shall enforce due observance of this Constitution and By-Laws; decide all questions of order; sign all official documents that are adopted by the Society, and none other, and perform all customary duties pertaining to the office of President.

Sec. 2. - The Vice-President shall assume all the duties of the President in the absence of the latter.

Sec. 3. - The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of all meetings, keep a roll of members, submit applications for membership, carry on all correspondence, read communications at each meeting, and mail written notices to each member of every meeting of the Society, except when excused by action under By-Laws. He shall at the expiration of his term turn over everything in his possession belonging to the Society to his successor.

---

An individual interested in radio technique solely with a personal aim and without pecuniary interest."

Sec. 4. - The Treasurer shall receive and receipt for all monies paid to the Society; he shall keep an accurate account of all monies received and expended. He shall pay no bills without proper authorization (by the Society or its officers constituting a business committee.) At the end of each quarter he shall submit an itemized statement of disbursements and receipts. He shall at the expiration of his term turn over everything in his possession belonging to the Society to his successor.

MEETINGS:

ARTICLE IV

Sec. 1. - The By-Laws shall provide for regular and special meetings. At all meetings, one-third of the membership shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

FES:

ARTICLE V

Sec. 1. - The Tri-State Amateur Radio Society by majority vote of those present at any regular meeting may levy upon the general membership such dues or assessments as shall be deemed necessary for the business of the organization within its object as set forth in the preamble thereof. Non-payment of such dues or assessments shall be cause for expulsion from the Society within the discretion of the membership.

AND MEMBERSHIP ASSISTANCE:

ARTICLE VI

Sec. 1. - The Society through designated members and committees will provide technical advice to members concerning equipment, design, and operation to assist in complete frequency observance, clear signals, uniform practice, and absence of spurious radiations from Society-member stations.

AMENDMENTS:

ARTICLE VII

Sec. 1. - This constitution or the By-Laws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the total membership. Proposals for amendments shall be submitted in writing at a regular meeting and may not be voted on until the next regular meeting.

ELKS:

ARTICLE VIII

Sec. 1. - Robert's Rules of Order (or Cushing's Manual) shall govern all proceedings of this Society.

BY-LAWS

Sec. 1. - SECRETARY: It shall be the duty of the Secretary to keep the constitution and by-laws of the Tri-State Amateur Radio Society and have the same with him at every regular and special meeting. He shall cause all amendments, changes and additions to be noted thereon and shall permit the same to be consulted by members upon request.

Sec. 2. - MEMBERSHIP: Applications for membership shall be submitted at a regular meeting in writing and each application must express a willingness of the applicant to abide by the Constitution and By-Laws and such rules as shall from time to time be promulgated by the Society. Two-thirds of those members present shall approve the applicant before he shall be considered elected to membership.

3. - MEETINGS: Regular meetings shall be held on last Friday of each calendar month at such place as the president shall order. Special meetings may be called by the president upon the written request of any five members of the Society, and for this purpose, the president himself may sign such a request. Notices shall be sent to all members informing them of the special meetings and the business to be transacted. Such notices shall be so sent that in the ordinary postal delivery they shall arrive at least twenty-four hours before the time therein set for the meeting. Only such business as is designated in the said notice shall be transacted at such special meetings.
4. - DUES: A regular yearly assessment of $4.00 per member is hereby assessed in accordance with the provision of Article V of the Constitution for the purpose of providing funds for current expenses. It is understood that this may be payable on a quarterly basis if so desired.
